DECIDE

on a creative person linked to Royal Pavilion & Museums that you would like to find out about. They can be associated with the permanent collection, a temporary exhibition or a member of staff. They have to be someone in the arts eg an artist, fashion designer, craftspeople, curator, conservator, architect, collector, photographer, film maker, sculptor, writer ... They don't have to be famous but they must be real ie not a character. They can be historical or contemporary. See list of Examples of Arts Practitioners linked to Royal Pavilion & Museums on our RP&M Arts Award page.

DO SOME RESEARCH: on the internet, in magazines, in books...

3

THE RESEARCH SHOULD INCLUDE THINGS LIKE:

- Who they are and what they do
- What have they been involved in? eg a work history or biography.
- Who do they work for?
- Where and how they learnt their skills, eg did they go to art college or learn skills from their friends?
- What makes their work special, and how has it changed or developed?
- What do they like and dislike about their job?
- Who do they admire? Who influences them?
- Interviews with them
- Anything else you find interesting ... but remember it is important to find out about their career rather than their personal life
- Also include why you chose them and how they inspire you

4

PRINT OUT, cut out or photocopy your research.
Put this in your arts award log.

5

WHAT are the main things you've found out?
Make a profile for each person or do a 'Top Ten Facts' list of things you've found out.

6

MAKE
a list of questions
you'd like to ask.
ADD
pictures of them
and their work.
